Christmas at Camp December 4th & 11th — 6 pm - 9 pm

17th Street will be in charge of the nativity scenes for Christmas at the Camp again this year.

A sign-up sheet is in the foyer for those who are interested in volunteering.

Participation in the nativity scenes does require standing outside. We also need a couple of volunteers for 17th Street's cabin; this requires standing and giving gingerbread cookies to children in cars as they drive by the cabins.

Anyone interested in helping at the cabin, please see Karen.

Cards advertising Christmas at Camp are located on the front foyer table. Please take them & share! Flyer's for businesses and other public places will be available soon. Please keep the camp and all who will attend in your prayers.

PLEASE HELP US UPDATE OUR BEREAVEMENT LIST FOR THIS VERY IMPORTANT MINISTRY!

If you are interested in being placed on or would like to remain on the Bereavement Meal List please let Karen know as soon as possible. Those on the list are called upon on a rotating basis to provide side dishes and desserts for a meal following a funeral. This is one way our church family can show support and love to those who are grieving.

Please help by contacting Karen at 524.2724 you can call, text or email her at office@17scc.com.

Welcome Jesse Martin

Notes

Dear Mike,

We are rejoicing with you on this special occasion as we celebrate your ordination.

Wishing you much happiness and joy as you continue your spiritual journey as a minister.

Mike's Challenge —

Last week, Mike challenged us again on the topic of generosity by discussing how to be generous with our time. He reminded us that time is our most valuable asset and that the return on time investment has eternal implications. He discussed three ways how we can be generous with our time: invest our time; leverage our work; and extend our service. This past week, Mike challenged us to answer the question, 'What Do I Have to Offer?'
